STILL IT'S RUPPERT.

He Yet Leads "The Evening World's" National Guard Election.

Lieut.-Col. Moran, of the 69th Regiment, Second Again.

Capt. Wilson and Major Kipp Holding Third and Fourth Positions.

The leader in THE EVENING WORLD'S National Guard election is still Col. Ruppert, who has polled to date 51,167 votes, Lieut.-Col. Moran has spurted again, and now looms up in second place with 41,936 votes to his credit.

Capt. Wilson is third with 41,616, and Major Kipp a close fourth with 41, 234. The contest for the sword will close Tues-day, Dec. 24, and no ballots received after that date will be counted. This will virtually be a splendid Christmas present for the winner, although the sword, of course, will not be made until it is known whether the winner is a staff or line officer.

winner is a staff or line officer.

The sword which the successful candidate will receive is to be a most magnificent affair. In the stat place, it is to be made upon an entirely new design, richly ornamented, and of the best material to be obtained.

The blade will be of the linest Damascus steel. The handle and quard will be of brass of special design, burnished and handchased, as will also be the mountings upon the scabbard, which well be either of shark-skin or of embossed metal, silver-plated and burnished. The grip will be either of shark-skin or of embossed metal, silver-plated and burnished, the design depending on the rank of the officer receiving it.

The shape of the blade will also depend upon the rank of the winner; if he is a line officer it will be straight, and if a staff officer it will be straight, and if a staff officer it will be a sabre and curred in form.

A medallon mounting of burnished and hand-chased metal on the upper part of the walderd will be inscribed with the name of the winner, with his rank and regiment.

The sword will be manufactured by B. M. Whileck of 90 Fourth avenue, the well-

The aword will be manufactured by B. M. Whitlock, of 90 Fourth avenue, the well-known maker of military equipments, and this amouncement of itself guarantees the best of material and workmanship.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. I BOSTON, Dec. 13.—The theatre-going publie has always kept a soft spot in its heart for Lawrence Barrett, and his admirers will learn with unfeigned regret that the illness from which he has been recently suffering has developed a dangerous phase. He arrived at the Hotel Vendome in this singers that for two weeks by reach of liness.

His disease is gotture and its chief symptom is a pronounced swelling of the giands of the threat.

His trouble has developed to such an extent that on the advice of his physician he will undergo a surgical operation with a view of obtaining relief.

Mrs. Harrett, who is staying with her husband at the Venlome, said last evening that lit. Barrett would enter the Massachusetts General Hospital and undergo treatment at General Hospital and undergo treatment at once.

ROBBED THE POOR.

"Doc" Warren's Crooked Career Ended by Inspector Byrnes.

Inspector Byrnes has in his cuetody a man whom he believes to be the meanest swindler on record He is J. J. Carter, alias "Doc" Warren, and his victims are men looking for employment, who have a few hundred dollars stowed away, frequently the product of years of toil.

For a year or more past advertisements have appeared in the papers calling for "a helper at expositions South and West" at a salary of $50 a week and expenses, the applicant to furnish a guarantee deposit of from $150 to $200. Those who responded were met by an oily-tongued individual, who directed them to meet him at some hotel in Jersey City or meet him at some hotel in Jersey City or some other town, where contracts were drawn up and the money raid over.

Then the "helper," who understood his new bus ness to be to carry samples of goods to county fairs, was started to Philadelphia, and there met by a confederate of the man at this end, who sent him on to St. Louis, or some other far Western town, generally as far as his money would carry him, so that he night be effectivally stranded.

The cheme worked to a charm. The deluded victims were seldem seen here again, although they were frequently heard from by inquiries through the rolice of the western towns, as to the pretended "employer."

western towns, as to the pretended "employer."

Recently, however, one came back to make trouble. He was Charles J. Nash. of Black Bock, Conn., and had met "Doe "Warren at Leggett's Hotel, paid $200 and gone to St. Lonis.

Fortunately be had kept back a sum large enough to take him home again, and he showed up promptly on discovering the haud. He told his story to inspector Byrnes, and the Chief's men. Alonce and Cottrell, arrested Carter last night in Greenwich avenue. Nash identified him at sight. Another complainant has been found in Frederick Pover, of 48115 Willouchby avenue. Brooklyn. He, too, was robled of $700.

Carter has been punished in Missouri and Southern California, as well as in Philadelphia, for this sort of swindling, the police

The Etruria Mikes the Eastward Yoyage in 6 Days 45 Minutes.

A cable despatch to the Cunard line from London to-day, stated that the Etruria passed Brow Head at 1 P. M. to-day, after a remarkably fast voyage. She left this port for Liverpool on Saturday, and her time is computed as 6 days 45 minutes.

This beats all the Etruria's former records and is wonderful time for an eastward trip.

The Etruria's best record until t -day was 6 days 1 hour 55 minutes, made in June. 1888. This was for a westward trip.

The fastest eastward trip made heretofore by the Etruria was 6 days 4 hours 40 minutes, in April 1888.

OLIVER JOHNSON BURIED. Impressive Ceremonies Over the Old Abolitionist's Remains.

The funeral obsequies over the body of the late Oliver Johnson, took place this morning at the Church of the Messiah, corner of Thirty-fourth street and Fark avenue, The remains were taken to the Cemetery of the Friends' Society at Longwood, Ches-ter County, Pa., for interment.

Rheumatism

Is believed to be caused by excess of lactic acid in the blood, owing to the failure of the kidneys and liver to properly remove it. The acid attacks the fibrous tissues, particularly in the joints, and causes the local manifestations of the disease pains and aches in the back and shoulders and in the joints at the knees, ankles, hips and wrists. Thousands of people have found in Hood's bara-pertils a justifier and permanent curs for rheuma-tilly and the state of the partying and visilizing action, neutralized shoulding of the blood and also builds up the whole body.

Sixth Avenue, cor 12th St. THE "HUMAN CORKSCREW" DEAD.

A Well Known Museum Freak Carried Off by Heart Failure. The "human corkscrew," whose lithograph portrait has been the marvel of New York's juvenile mind and whose gparied little person has been a museum attraction for years, is dead.

Lis name was Waiter H. Drew and he died at the Pennsylvania Hote'. West street, yesterday of heart failure. He was twenty-seven years old and was born in Bangor, where his mother keeps a rubbic house.

Drew was first advertised as the "Spiral Spinal Column "Ian." and his pictures represented him with a body wound into a spiral coil.

represented him with a body wound into a spiral coil.

He had long, slender arms and very short legs, and was a skeleton and a dwarf at the same time, weighing but sixty point is. He was very nimble and expert with his feet and could play a double tation on a drum with his toes, so he advertised himself as "the Nimble-toed Corkserew Man."

His spinal column apparently began at the right shoulder, went directly towards the left hip, and then takes a sudden turn in the opposite direction, ended in the small of the back, making a letter S.

Drew was mentally very active. His professional story was that his father was a Confectrate Colonel, who was shot and horribly mangled in a battle. His mother saw him killed, and the socht produced a gnarled child. Coroner's Physician Dr. Weston will hold an autopsy, and then the body will be sent to Bangor.

EXAMINATIONS DON'T HURT THEM

An Association That Thrives Under the Most Scarching Investigations.

It would naturally be supposed that some time or other there would be an end to the number of official examinations by insur-number of official examinations by insurance departments, experts, actuaries and accountants into the affairs of the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association.

It is also a question as to just what the Association's rivals expect to make by causing so many of these examinations, and yet the Mutual Reserve seems to care very little about these little matters, and it is little wonder, for from every examination the Association emerges with flying colors.

The Mutual Reserve has just been prepounced by the Insurance Department of the State of West Virginia sound, solid and entitled to the fullest public confidence.

The Department has arrived at this conclusion after a thorough examination of the Mutual Reserve's assets, books, system and accounts.

Another feather in the Mutual Reserve's

Mutual Reserve's assets, books, system and accounts.

Another feather in the Mutual Reserve's cap is the able opinion of the well-known lawyer. Mr. Albert Reynaud, of 70 William street, who says in a letter to President E. B. Harper, of 18 Park Row, that he was led to examine into one feature of the Mutual Reserve's organization while professionally employed in a small controversy against the Association.

Mr. Revnaud is enthusiastic over the Association's organization, which he declares is as exceptional as it is excellent.

The feature that he call's special attention to is the "double cheek" system upon individual discretion, which the Association has sought and carried out. To illustrate, the Reserve Fund is invested, not at the discretion or caprice of the Association alone, but subject to the additional judgment of a Trust Company, in whose hands the money is deposited in trust for the policy-holders.

The following we quote from the editorial columns of the New York Sunday Dispatch of Dec. 8, 1380: A SOLID COMPANY.
